MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. McCone

Immediately after you became Director of Central Intelligence we distributed to all Agency employees a package of papers containing remarks made by President Kennedy when he came to our Headquarters building to present Mr. Dulles the National Security Medal, Mr. Dulles' response to the President, the exchange of letters between Mr. Dulles and the President, and the President's and your remarks at your swearing-in ceremony. I assume that we may have a similar package to distribute after Admiral Raborn is sworn in if, of course, this should meet with his and your approval.

In addition to this, however, I recommend that you consider signing a memorandum to all Agency employees upon the occasion of your departure from the Agency. Remarks which some of us have heard you make so often concerning the dedication, professionalism, and efficiency of the Agency would mean a great deal to those who have served under your leadership during these past three and one-half years.

Signed

L. K. White
